Miss Ballman Wins Prize.

The prize this week for the best advertisement written of my business goes to Miss Christine Ballman, with the one by Miss Lena Mattingly a close second, and worthy mention due the one written by Miss Jessie Hemphill. Boys, the girls have been first each time and are one, two, three this week. I know a number of you have the talent, and I certainly would like to see you win one time before the contest closes, hence I am going to give another chance for Saturday, Feb. 15th. Get busy. There is no catch in this, simply the one writing the best ad gets the prize, boy or girl.

Respectfully,
Marion Weatherholt.

Home Mission Work.

Mrs. Wickliffe DeHaven, fourth vice-president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, is preparing a box of clothing at the home of Mrs. Frank Fraize. Contributions are being made to it every day, and it will be sent to a minister and his thirteen children in the Kentucky mountains at an early date.

From Farming.

Edward Oglesby has retired from farming and has rented his farm to Sam Beavin. Mr. Oglesby will advertise a sale in the Breckenridge News next week.

Robbing the Jam Closet.
"What is your wife doing in the jam closet with a magnifying glass?"
"She's getting to be quite an expert on finger prints. Who's the culprit this time, my dear?"

Farmer's Widow

Receives Money.

Henderson, Ky., Jan. 25.--A strange story has come to light here of a mysterious deposit made in the Ohio Valley Banking and Trust Company, seven years ago. The amount was $252, and it was paid over to the widow of Arch Denton, who, while living, was a prominent and well-to-do farmer of this county.

It appears that Denton came to town seven years ago and sold his tobacco for $252. He took too many drinks and was placed in the city prison over night. When he was released the next day he didn't have any money and accused the police of robbing him. Recently this bank advertised the unpaid for deposits and sent a notice to Mrs. Denton, and she called and got the money. It is believed that Denton either deposited the money while intoxicated or that some friends seeing his condition, took the money from him and deposited it in the bank.

WANT EQUITABLE TO PAY $210,000

Robinson Heirs File Suit At Danville Which Will Attract Attention.

Danville, Ky., Jan. 25.--Jacob and James Robinson, wealthy farmers of this county, with other heirs of the late James Robinson, whose death occurred at an advanced age at Hubble some weeks ago, have filed suit in the Lincoln Circuit Court against the Equitable Insurance Society, of New York, for $210,000.

The deceased took out a $10,000 policy with the Equitable in 1869, when the society was in its infancy. The policy was of the mutual plan, and the suit seeks to have the Robinson heirs participate in $71,000,000 of unassigned surplus funds which have accumulated to the Equitable since the policy was issued.

The question raised by the suit is an entirely new one, which has never been passed upon by any court in the United States. Attorney Joseph Robinson, of Lancaster, who is one of the heirs, brought the suit, and will be assisted by former Justice Edward C. O'Rear, of Frankfort. If the case is won a question will be opened to which probably would result in similar suits being filed in all parts of the country. The heirs contend that their pro rata of the surplus for the period covered is the sum named.

FATHER DRURY

Dies In Louisville--Visited Father Brey Here And Held Services At St. Rose--Burial Monday.

Monday's Evening Post contained the following notice:

The Rev. Edwin Drury, sixty eight years of age, who had had many years' experience as a priest and missionary in the Louisville diocese, died Sunday morning, after a short illness, at St. Joseph's Infirmary. It was at first thought his condition was due only to overwork, but more serious trouble developed.

He had been pastor of churches in Knottsville, Chicago, Ky., and Pewee Valley.

The body will be taken to Loretto Monday afternoon for burial, and practically every priest in the diocese will attend the funeral. Bishop O'Donoghue and Father Cronin, vicar general of the diocese, will conduct the service.

Father Drury is survived by one brother, Frank Drury, of Knottsville, Ky., and two nephews, Father Louis Spalding, of Knottsville, and Father C. Brey, pastor of Holy Cross church, Louisville.

Father Drury often visited here during Father Brey's pastorate at St. Rose church, and was a beloved minister.

Married at St. Rose.

Mr. Waverly Elder and Miss Helen Macey were married at the St. Rose Catholic church Friday. They are popular young people of the Stephensport vicinity.

SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL CLOSES

Prof. McCoy Principal--Presented With a Fountain Pen.

Tarfork school closed Tuesday, January 21, 1913, with a splendid program rendered by the pupils. Too much praise can never be given the teacher, Mr. Roy T. McCoy, for one of the most successful schools taught in the district. A number of friends and patrons were present to enjoy the closing exercises and nice treat of candy, oranges and apples. Interesting talks were made by Rev. C. L. Goff and Prof. McCoy. Owen Newby and Jimmie Hook attended every day of the term. After the program was rendered, trustee Ed Hook presented to Prof. McCoy a beautiful fountain pen in behalf of the district for appreciation of his successful work while here.

Society In Washington.

Washington, Jan. 30.--Miss Helen Taft was hostess at a young people's dinner at the White House this evening. The guests were afterward taken to a dance at the Washington Country Club in Virginia, which was given by Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., and Clarence Hay.

Miss Esther Cleveland and her young hostess, Miss Frances Hoar, were the honor guests of Mrs. Henry C. Corbin at luncheon to-day.

TOBACCO SALES.

In Owensboro Last Week Were the Heaviest of the Season--Deliveries Postponed Until February 10.

The deliveries of tobacco in Owensboro last week were the heaviest of any week since the delivery season opened. In addition to the rush by the poolers of the Green River Association there was a large amount delivered by the Equity and Home Warehouse poolers.

They will not be so heavy the present week, because the Equity and Home Warehouse deliveries have been called off until February 10, owing to the fact that the pool with these associations in the other counties of the district has not yet been placed. It is thought that a deal will be closed in time for deliveries to begin again on the date named, but if not it is probable that there will be another postponement, as the poolers in the other counties are complaining of the deliveries by the Daviess county poolers alleging that they are virtually "dumpers" on the other counties.

The graders at different factories where tobacco is being received are having much less trouble than when the season first opened, and everything seems to be working along smoothly. --Owensboro Messenger.

One Good Road in Breckenridge

J. T. F. Owen, of Glen Dean, was here last week delivering tobacco. He delivered five wagonloads and said the road from his place to Cloverport was actually good. It is not often that the roads in Breckenridge county are ever accused of being good.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

To Visit Kentucky.

Dear Mr. Babbage: You will find enclosed one dollar for renewal of my paper, as I can't afford to miss it; it is just like a letter from home. I will be in Kentucky in three weeks if nothing happens. The winter is fine in Iowa. Roads are dusty and everything fine. I will close, wishing you and your paper a grand success. I remain yours respectfully,
T. L. CALEY,
Glenwood, Iowa.

New Stamps Here.

Postmaster Leonard Oelze has just received a large amount of the Panama canal stamps which he ordered about a month ago. The young girls who take a pride in having their letters attractive looking are delighted with the new stamps. The one cent stamps are a deep green and the two "cents" are the Helen pink.

Prospering in Kansas.

Dear Mr. Babbage: Please find enclosed money order for $1, for which please credit my subscription to The Breckenridge News one year. Reasonable prosperity and good health finds us enjoying life in Kansas, one of the greatest countries in the United States. Remember me kindly to all inquiring friends. Very respectfully,
A. L. HOWARD,
Sylvia, Kansas.

JULIUS CAESAR

By William Faerversham's Company--Shakespeare's Greatest Play In Louisville Friday And Saturday.

William Faerversham's "Julius Caesar" Company. Far and away the most important dramatic offering in many seasons comes to the Shubert Masonic theatre, Louisville, for two days' engagement, Friday and Saturday, February 7 and 8, with a matinee on Saturday, when William Faerversham will present his spectacular production of "Julius Caesar" with an all-star cast including Mr. Faerversham, Berton Churchill, Frank Keenan, Fuller Mollish, Miss Julie Opp, and a supporting company of 200 persons among whom may be mentioned Miss Jane Wheatley, Arthur Elliott, and Lionel Belmore. Not since the days of booth Barrett and Davenport has there been gathered in any one permanent organization such a remarkable array of histrionic talent as Mr. Faerversham has assembled, and during the triumphant New York engagement of the production, the stern metropolitan critics united as one man in proclaiming the presentation to be the most notable Shakespearean revival of modern times.

The performance is pervaded throughout by a note of modernity, a sense of humanity which makes doubly gripping to the twenty century audiences the stress and struggle of the ever popular drama of Caesarian intrigue. For once oldtime bombast and classic posing are banished from a Shakespearean performance, the keen enjoyment of which is greatly enhanced by the omission. Mail orders are now being received for all three performances, the regular 50c to $2 scale prevailing.

Mr. Wade Pile Recovering.

Mrs. H. E. Frymire, of Frymire, and nephew, Woodrow Wilson Pile, two years old, were en route to Mook Monday. Mr. Wade Pile, father of the young man, has been ill of typhoid fever since last fall and is just now getting able to walk around his room. His friends will be pleased to learn of his recovery from such a long siege of illness.

NEXT MONDAY ENTERTAINING DAY.

Women of the Methodist Church Will Hold An All Day Meeting --Mission Work Will Be Thoroughly Handled.

WILL BE LUNCHEON AT NOON

An all day meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will be held Monday, February 10.

Besides the regular business session the various phases of the work will be presented. Each member is requested to bring a question in writing concerning some phase of the work she would like to hear discussed.

The pledges for the year are to be decided upon, also the selection of delegates to annual meeting.

As the services will be held all day the ladies are asked to bring lunches which will be served together at the noon hour.

The day will be very entertaining for everyone interested in mission work which includes both foreign and home work.

Women who are interested in the constitution of the church may bring any question for discussion in information. Also mountain work and work in Africa, will be included. Every woman is cordially invited.

Bandy-Payne.

A large number of friends and relatives assembled at the Walnut Grove Baptist church Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 28, to witness the marriage of Miss Nannie L. Payne to Allen Bandy. The Rev. J. T. Lewis officiated. Miss Hazel Payne and Elbert Keys, niece and nephew of the bride, and Miss Emaree Bandy, sister of the bridegroom, and Hewitt Gibson were the attendants. Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party entered the church to the beautiful strains of a wedding march rendered by Miss Mami Adkisson. Mr. and Mrs. Bandy are very popular teachers of Lodiburg vicinity. They were recipients of many handsome and useful presents from friends, who wish for them a happy and prosperous voyage through life. Those who attended from a distance were Mrs. Owen Keys and son, Elbert, of West Point, Mrs. Will Gibson and daughter, Mary, Mrs. Joe M. Fitch and Mrs. Leighton Perkins, of Cloverport, and Abner Robertson, of Missouri.

Colored People Dead.

Aunt Ann Pate, formerly of Patesville, died in Irvington Saturday. The body was taken to her old home for burial.

Anna DeHaven Woods, who died in Louisville, was brought here for burial. She was born and reared in Cloverport, leaving here after she was grown. Her friends and people thought a good deal of her.

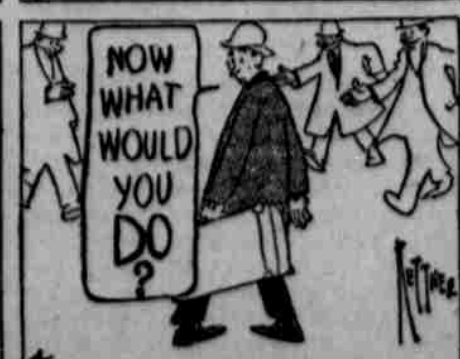

Miss Ricketts Here.

Miss Rebecca Ricketts, of Elizabethtown, Hardin county, Illinois, has been visiting her brother, Mr. Abe Ricketts, and her old home at Union Star. Her friends were mighty glad to see her in Cloverport.

Tobacco Here.

The tobacco received here last week amounted to several thousand pounds. The growers are getting their sales and deliveries straightened. They are not so worried over the situation now.

NOW, WHAT WOULD YOU DO?
